Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 "E" Street
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I wish to express my appreciation for the splendid talk on "The Nature and Significance of Strategic Intelligence" given by Mr. [redacted] to the Armor Officer Advanced Class and other members of the US Army Armor School and Center on 9 February 1960.

All those in attendance, I am certain, now have a better perspective of the national effort in the area of intelligence and the organization, procedures and operations in sustaining this effort. Talks such as these add materially to our curriculum and contribute greatly to the professional growth and general development of our officers.

Thank you for your cooperation in making [redacted] services available to us again this year. It was a pleasure to have had him as our guest and I hope that we may look forward to a similar presentation at some opportune time in the future.
